The board of directors will keep a register for each shareholder having communicated his/her wish to participate in the general meeting, stating his/her name and address or office, the number of shares he/she owned on the registration date and for which he/she has indicated wishing to participate in the general meeting, and a description of the documents that prove that he/she was a holder of the shares on that registration date.

23.5. The holders of convertible bonds, warrants or certificates that were issued with the cooperation of the company may attend the general meeting, but only with an advisory vote provided that there is observance of the aforementioned admission conditions that apply to shareholders that must be applied in that case mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 24. PARTICIPATION IN THE MEETING - REPRESENTATION.

24.1. Every shareholder of the company may have himself/herself represented at the general meeting by a proxyholder who may or may not be a shareholder.

24.2. A shareholder of the company may only appoint (1) one proxyholder for a specific general meeting. Derogation to this principle is only possible in accordance with the related rules of the Code of Companies and Associations.

24.3. A person acting as a proxyholder can have proxies of more than one shareholder. If a proxyholder has proxies from several shareholders, he can vote differently in the name of one shareholder than in the name of another shareholder.

24.4. The appointment of a proxyholder by a shareholder is done in writing or via an electronic form and has to be signed by the shareholder in handwriting or using an electronic signature.

24.5. The designation of a proxyholder by a shareholder shall be made in writing or via an electronic form and must be signed by the shareholder, by hand or with an electronic signature.

24.6. The company has to receive the proxy at latest the sixth (6th) day prior to the meeting date.

24.7. Without prejudice to the possibility, in accordance with article 7:145, second paragraph, of the Code of Companies and Associations to derogate from the instructions under certain circumstances, the proxyholder expresses his vote in accordance with the possible instructions of the shareholder who has appointed him/her. The proxyholder has to hold a register for at least (1) year of the voting instructions and confirm, at the request of the shareholder, that he respected the voting instructions.

24.8. In case of a potential conflict of interest as defined in article 7:143, paragraph 4, of the Code of Companies and Associations between the shareholder and the proxyholder he/she has appointed, the proxyholder must disclose the precise facts that are of interest to the shareholder to judge if the risk exists that the proxyholder promotes any other interests than that of the shareholder. Moreover, the proxyholder can only vote in the name of the shareholder provided that he has specific voting instructions for each agenda item.

24.9. In the case of an addition to the agenda, in accordance with article 21.4 of the articles of association, and if a proxy has already been communicated to the company before the publication of the amended agenda, the proxyholder has to respect the related provisions of the Code of Companies and Associations.

ARTICLE 25. ATTENDANCE LIST.

25.1. Before participating in the meeting, the shareholders or their proxyholders must sign the attendance list whilst indicating their surname, first name or names and the place where they live or the name and the registered office of the shareholders and the number of shares that they represent. The form and signing modalities of the list are determined for each meeting by the board of directors (or the appointed person).

ARTICLE 26. COMPOSITION OF THE BUREAU - MINUTES.

26.1. The general meetings are chaired by the chairperson of the board of directors or, should he/she not be available, by a director indicated by the meeting or, if no directors are present, by the shareholder with the most voting rights.

26.2. The chairperson of the meeting appoints a secretary and one or more vote scrutineers, who do not need to be (a) shareholder(s). The chairperson, the secretary and the scrutineers altogether form the bureau.

26.3. The minutes of the general meetings are signed by the members of the bureau and the shareholders that ask this. These minutes are recorded in a special register.

ARTICLE 27. DELIBERATION - ATTENDANCE QUORUM.

27.1. The deliberation and voting at the general meeting are directed by the chairperson of the meeting and take place in accordance with the habitual rules of proper meeting techniques.

27.2. The directors shall answer questions put to them orally or in writing by the shareholders or holders of convertible bonds or registered warrants or registered certificates issued with the cooperation of the company, in advance or during the meeting, which are related to the items on the agenda, provided that the communication of data or facts is not of such a nature that it may harm the company or contravene confidentiality undertakings given by them or by the company.

27.3. The statutory auditors shall answer questions put to them orally or in writing by shareholders or holders of convertible bonds or registered warrants or registered certificates issued with the cooperation of the Company, in advance or during the meeting, relating to the items on the agenda on which they report, insofar as the communication of data or facts is not of such a nature that it may harm the company or is in breach of confidentiality undertakings entered into by them or by the company. They shall have the right to speak at general meetings in connection with the performance of their duties.

27.4. If different questions are related to the same subject, the directors and statutory auditors are allowed to respond to these with one answer. As soon as the convocation is published, the shareholders, holders of convertible bonds or registered warrants or registered certificates issued with the cooperation of the company can ask the aforementioned questions in writing in accordance with the related provisions of the Code of Companies and Associations.

27.5. The board of directors is entitled to adjourn each ordinary, special or extraordinary general meeting one single time for five (5) weeks, unless the meeting has been convened at the request of one or more shareholders, representing at least one tenth (1/10th) of the capital, or by the statutory auditor. Such adjournment does not prejudice the other decisions that were taken, except if the general meeting decides otherwise on this matter.

27.6. The general meeting may only validly deliberate or decide on items included or implicitly contained in the announced agenda. There can only be a deliberation on items that were not included in the agenda if all persons that are to be invited according to the Code of Companies and Associations are present or represented by their body or permanent representative and nobody objects to extending the agenda. The required consent is established if no opposition is recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

27.7. The general meeting may legally deliberate and adopt resolutions regardless of the number of shares present and represented except in the cases where the law demands a specific attendance quorum.

ARTICLE 28. VOTING RIGHT.

28.1. Each share with voting rights entitles to Holder to one vote at the general meeting.

28.2. The fully paid-up shares that are registered for at least two years without interruption in the name of the same shareholder in the register of shares regardless of whether this register is maintained in electronic form or not also grant, in accordance with article 7:53 of the Code of Companies and Associations, a double voting right.

28.3. The period of two years starts as from the date of registration of the registered shares in the share register. The double voting right will no longer apply as from the date of deletion in the aforementioned register except for the cases as referred to in law.

28.4. When the capital is increased, double voting rights are granted as of the issue to bonus shares issued in favour of shareholders for old shares for which they have this right.

28.5. If a shareholder dematerialises or transfers ownership of part of his registered shares, then, for the purpose of determining double voting rights, the registered shares that were last entered in the share register will be first deducted from his total number of registered shares, unless the request for dematerialisation or the transfer documentation expressly provides otherwise.

28.6. To determine whether a single or double voting right of a shareholder exists, the company may solely base itself on the registrations in the register of registered shares without this being in breach of its right to decide otherwise based on the information the company is aware of and the legal provisions.

28.7. If issues or circumstances occur that entail the loss of the double voting right for a shareholder that remains unchanged in the register of registered shares, this shareholder must inform the company immediately about this and, at the first request, submit proof in relation to this.

28.8. If issues or circumstances occur that entail the retention of the double voting right despite the change of shareholder in the register of registered shares, this shareholder who appeals to the double voting right must inform the company immediately about this and, at the first request, submit proof in relation to this.

28.9. The shareholders participate in the general meeting with the number of voting rights that they have on the registration date.

ARTICLE 29. PARTICIPATION AND REMOTE VOTING.

29.1. Each shareholder may, if the board of directors so determines in the notice of meeting, participate remotely in the general meeting via a means of electronic communication made available by the company, except in cases not permitted by law.

29.2. Shareholders who participate in this manner in the general meeting are deemed to be present at the location where the meeting is being held for the fulfilment of the conditions regarding attendance and majority quorum.

29.3. The electronic communication resource referred to previously must allow the company to check the capacity and identity of the shareholder.

29.4. The shareholder who wishes to make use of it must, as a minimum, be able to take direct, simultaneous and uninterrupted notice of the discussions at the meeting and exercise his voting rights in respect of all items on which the meeting is required to decide.

29.5. Each shareholder may also, if the board of directors so determines in the notice of meeting, vote by letter or electronically by means of a form prepared by the board of directors, which shall contain the following indications: (i) identification of the shareholder, (ii) number of votes to which he is entitled and (iii) for each resolution to be taken by the general meeting in accordance with the agenda, the indication "yes", "no" or "abstain"; the form shall be sent to the company and must arrive at the registered office at the latest three working days before the meeting.

ARTICLE 30. MAJORITY.

30.1. Except in the cases provided for by law, decisions shall be taken by a simple majority of the votes cast. Abstentions or blank votes and null and void votes shall be disregarded when calculating the majority. If the votes are tied, the proposal is rejected.

ARTICLE 31. COPIES AND EXTRACTS OF THE MINUTES.

31.1. At each general meeting minutes are drawn up during the meeting.

31.2. The minutes comprise the information prescribed by law and are signed by the members of the bureau and the shareholders that request this.
